BE thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my Soul depart from thee: lest I make thee desolate, a Land not inhabited.

HE words are a moving Exhortation from GOD to a provoking People, whose multiplied and hainous Transgressions had ripened them for the Vengeance of Heaven, and for Deselating Judgments. If we look back to the Charge drawn up against a Professing People of GOD, as an Evidence of their world A postacy and

and Declenfion: Yea their Cafe is represented as if there was scarce a Godly Man to be found among them all. Ver i. Run ye to and fro through the Streets of Jerufalem, an fee now and know, and feek in the Broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be an that executeth Judgment, that feeketh the Truth, and I will pardon it. A fad Cafe truly, if there were not one such to be found. Ferufalem would then be worfe than Sodom that was destroyed by Fire from Heaven, for even there a Righteous Lot was found. But doubtless the Words are to be taken not absolutely, but in a comparative sense, to denote the fewness of the Godly there, and the general Corruption reigning among all Ranks and Orders of Men. More particularly, they are Articled against for their false swearing, their Incorrigibleness under the Judgments of God, their Idelatry and Adultery, their contempt of God's Word and Prophets, together with their criminal regardles ness of bim whose Power is great, and for which be is to be feared, their Decett, Injustice & Violence, and delight in false Prophets. The Prophets prophely fulfely, and the Priests bear rule by their means, and my people love to bave it fo. And in the midft of these Charges we have once and again such sharp Interrogatories as one would think should have awakened and wounded them. How shall I Pardon thre for this? Shall I not vifit for these things? fairb ibe Lord : and faill not my fout be ovenged on fact a nation as this? Hear ye not me & fairb

And again, Shall I not wift for thefe things? faith the Lord: Shall now my foul be awenged on fuch a Nation as this & In this Chapter therefore we find a justly offended GOD giving a Commission to the Chaldeans the Enemies of His People, to go up against and destroy them for their very great Wickedness: which Commission, with the ground and reason of it, we have opened, Ver. 6, 7. Thus bath the Lard of Hosts said, Hew ye down Trees, and cast a mount sgainst ferufalem : abis is the City to be visited, she is aboliv oppression in the midst of ber. As a Fountain casteth out hen waters, so the casterb out ber wickedness : Violence and spoil is heard in her, before me consinually is grief and wounds of Thus is Jerufalem convicted and threatned. Nevertheles, fuch are the Compatitions of a Merciful GOD. that before he brings the threatned Ruin upon a finful People, he will give them warning and advise them of their Danger; that they may Repent of their wickedness, and thereby prevent the evil coming upon them, which he threatens to do unto them. BE thou Instructed, O Jerufalem; or as it is in the Original, Be thou Corrected; O Jerufalem: i.e. "By the Correction thou hast felt "already, and which is further threatned, Be perswaded to Repentance before it be too late. Let the Rod and Reproof teach thee Wisdom. Nor were they at any loss what to do in this Case, Case, being well enough acquainted with what GOD tells them by this Prophet, Chap. 18.7.8. As what Instant I shall speak concerning a Nation and concerning a Kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down and to destroy is: If then Nation against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evilther I thought to do unto them.

LEST my Soul depart from thee; or according to the Marginal Reading of our Bibles, be loofed or disjointed from thee which doubtless, as our English Annotatours observe, "is a Metaphor taken from the Dislocation of a Limb, the loosing it from it's natural Place and Posture, and putting it, as we say, out of Joynt intimating what a Pain and Grief it is to GOD to leave or cast off a People, whom he hath taken into Covenant with himself, and with how much difficulty he is drawn thereunto.

LEST I make thee Defotate, a Land not Inhabited. Lest I both cast thee off, and cut thee off. So that the Exhortation is grounded upon the most Important and weighty Considerations Imaginable.

THERE are Four Doctrines I shall offer you and briefly speak to from the Words.

DOCT. I. THAT the Happiness of a People consists in having the Gravious Presidence of GOD with them.

DOCT. III. THAT the Departure of GOD from a People, opens a Door for De fola-

DOGT. IV. THAT it is both the Day & Interest of a People, to do all that in them lies, to prevent so great a Calamity, as the Departure of GOD's Soul from them will certainly carry in it.

DOCT I. THAT the Happiness of a People consists in having the gracious Presence of GOD with them.

THIS Doctrine, the not express d, is yet necessarily implied in the Words. For if the Departure of GOD from a People be threatned as the forest Judgment that can be fall them and they be earnestly called upon to use their utshoft endeavours to prevent it, then nothing can be more plain than that his gracious Presence with them is their Happiness and Glory.

AND this is a Truth very easily proved and evidenced. It is not the Confluence of all the Blessings of Providence, the abounding of Peace, Plenty, and every other common Mercy desirable, that does so denominate a People Happy, as the having GOD with them; whose Presence is All in All to their Felicity: Their Decus ac Tutamen; their Ornament and Safety, their Defence and Glory. This is the comprehenfive Sum of all GOD's gracious Promifes to his People, as he told Foshua, Chap. 115. I will be with thee : I will not fail thee, nor for fake ibee. Yea we find the Phrase sometimes used as expressive of all the Good that need to be requested for. Thus by Pious Facob, Gen. 28.20. If God will be with me, and will keep me in the way that I go. What Benediction can be more Full than that, The Great GOD be with you! Every Bleiling is included in fuch a Wish. Thus Boaz came from Betblebem, and faid unto his Reapers, The Lord be with you : And they to be even with him in Blefling, anfwered, The Lord blefs thee, Ruth 2. 4. With this also we find good old Ifrael comforting his Sons a little before his Death , Gen. 48.21. And Ifrael faid, Behold I die: but GOD shall be with you. So that the best thing which GOD can Promise, or we can desire, either for our felves or others, is, That GOD will be with us and them. Agreable whereto is that Prayer of Solomon, at the Dedication of the Temple, 1 Kings 8. 57 The Lord our God be with us, as be was with our Fathers: let him not leave us, nor for fake us. If the Divine Presence be once obtained, all other Bleifings both Temporal and Spiritual will be confequent thereupon. Particularly.

1 F GOD be with a People, he will favour them with all that Guidance, Conduit and Direction that they need. It is one Character given of the Bleffed GOD, Pfal. 84.11. For the Lord God is a Sun. And when he is that stilled in reference to his People, it denotes that he will afford them all that Light & Direction, which their Darkness & Difficulties may render needful for them: That he will instruct and teach them in the way which they should go, and guide them with his eye; that when their way is hedg'd up with thorns, and their Perplexities such that they know not what to do, he will acquaint them with their Duty, and make their way plain before them.

Again, GOD's Presence with a People supposes that he will both Support under, and extricate them out of their Difficulties: That his Wisdom, Power and Goodness shall be singularly concern'd and employ'd for them; that he will be to them a present help in every time of trouble to support them under their Burdens; yea that in the mount of their Difficulties he will be seen, working Deliverance and Salvation for them. And O that in these respects there were more visible tokens of GOD's Gracious Presence with this People!

Again, GOD's being with a People implies his Prospering and giving Success to all their lawful Undertakings. We read concerning foseph, Gen. 39.23. The Lord was with him: and that which he did, the Lord made it to prosper. And of Uzziah, 2 Chron. 26.5. That as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper.

The Success of all endeavours is from the Lord alone, and if a People once engage the Prefence of GOD with them, they may be affured of all kind of Prosperity. Salvation then will in every respect be nigh unto them, and Glory dwell in the Land as on Jana a mark and in might further have faid, That where GOD is present with a People, he will multiply Spiritual Beffings also upon them. He will be gracioully orelent with his own Ordinances, and give abundant Success to the Means of Grace. He will pour bis Spirit upon the Seed of his People, and his Bleffing upon their Offspring: Yea fuch shall be the remarkable fmiles of Heaven upon them, that all fhall take Notice, That they are a People whom the this isamplied in the Presence of GOD with a People; and if fo, we may well draw up the Pfalmift's Conclusion, Pfal. 144. ult. Happy is the People that is in Such a case : yea, Happy is that People whose God is the Lord. And may I not fay, that GOD is thus with a People, and will continue to be fo as long as they continue Faithful to him ? 2 Chron. 15. 2. Hear ye me, Afa, and all Judah and Benjamin. DOCT. II. THAT GOD is not fo engaged to any People, but that upon just Provocation given him, his Soul may depart from them.

THE People of the Jews were once the only Profeshing People that GOD had in the World; a People whom he chose to himself above all People that were upon the Face of the Earth, and upon whom he bestowed special Marks of his Favour. Nevertheless these he warns, to take Care lest by their unsuitable Carriage they should provoke him to abandon and cast them off; lest his Soul should depart from them: Which Phrase imports not only his suspending the former manifestations of his Love; but even his utter loathing and abhormence of them.

For clearing this, I shall sinds we are to

I. SHOW when a People may be said to Soul may depart from them.

I. I am to show when a People may be fail to provoke GOD to depart from them.

AND altho' it be true that all Sins are difpleasing to GOD, and what his Soul hates, yet there there are some particular Evils which are more provoking, and have a more direct tendency to cause him to depart. I'll Instance here only in a few of them; and hint at some others afterward.

1. A Low Esteem of the Presence of GOD with a People, will be a just Provocation to him to depart from them. If that which is the highest Favour of GOD to a People be undervalued and meanly accounted of by them, how Tust must it be with him to take the same from them, that they may learn to know the worth of it by the want thereof? What Person would burden others with his Company, that neither value nor defire it? Now this is too often the Case of a Professing People with respect to the gracious Presence of GOD with them. They don't fet that Value upon it, which the Excellency of the Bleiling calls for : they are not fo Thankful for it when enjoyed, as they ought to be : they are not fo defirous of the Continuance of it, as indeed they should be: nor are they fo concerned at the awful Tokens of it's withdraw from them, as it might be reafonably expected they would be: nor yet fo Prayerful to him as the folemn Dispensation calls upon them to be like him, Pial. 90. 13, 15. 2. A Departure from the Pure Inflituted Worship of GOD will provoke him to Depart. The Glorious GOD who is the fole Object of Religious Worship, has given sufficient Direction in his Word, how he will be Worshipped by his Creatures. And to Worship him after a way of our own devising, will be found very provoking to him, who is a GOD Jealous for himfelf and his own Glory. Now as to a Profelling People, it is but reasonably supposed that they have been instructed in the Purity of Divine Worship; that unto them has been fhown the Form of GOD's House, and the Fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, with all the Ordinances and Laws thereof. (Ezek. 43. 11.) That they have often been urged to hold fast the form of found words, and contend earnestly for the Faith delivered to the Saints : to remember how they have received and heard, and hold fast: and beware left being led away with the Error of the Wicked, they should fall from their own stedfastness. To leave then the Commandments of GOD for the Traditions of Men, and introduce those Ceremonies into his Worship, and add those Inventions of our own thereto which he never Commanded, will be found a plain encroachment upon the Divine Prerogative. Prerogative. And such as are guilty in this respect would do well to consider what Answer they shall give in to GOD another Day, when he shall demand of them, as in Ha. 1. 12. Who hash required this at your hands? Matth. 15. 8, 9. This People drawers night unto me with their mouth and honourests me with their lips: but their heart is far from me. But in wain they do worship me, teaching for Doctrines the Commandments of Men. This will be look'd upon as a Departure from GOD.

3. AN unfuitable Carriage towards GOD's Messengers & Servants, will have a dreadful tendency to provoke him to Depart from a People. Where his Gospel is priz'd, and his Servants meet with a kind Entertainment, with fuch a People GO D will continue his gracious Presence. With them he has given his Servants Orders to abide; and a Temporal Bleffing has been wont to go along with the Gospel But if a People grow cold in their Affections to Divine Truths, and mifuse the Messengers of the Lord, he who has fent them, will look upon it as a Contempt cast upon himfelf, which he will not bear. There were mamy crying aboninations in Jerufalem; but yet her Destruction feems to bear Date from the prevailing of this Sin. 12 Ohron. 36.16, 161 And the Lord God of their Fathers Jenn to them by his Meffengers, rifing up beeimes, and fende ing them, because he had compassion on his people; and on his dwelling place. 4. INCORRIGIBLENESS under the Judgments of GOD has also a direct tendency to provoke him to depart. This we find to be an Article in the heavy Indictment brought in against that People, whom God in the Text calls upon to be Instructed, lest his Soul depart from them. Jer 9 3. O Lord, thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou haft confumed them, but they have refused to receive correction : they have made their faces barder than a Rock, they have refused to return. Isa. 42. 25. He baib poured upon bim the fury of bis anger, and the strength of Battel; and it bath fet him on fire round about, yet be knew net. and it burned him, yet be laid it not to bear?. The Design of GOD in the Calamities he brings upon his People is to humble, reform and do them good: whereas if these prove ineffectual to reclaim them, if in the very face of Judgments, they will continue to provoke him, what can be expected, but that being grieved for the hardness of their heart, he should withdraw from them? The abuse of his Goodness, with the Contempt of his Rod is certainly a sufficient Provocation to him to take his leave of fach a People, and to resolve against them; as in Ezek. 24. 13. Becaufe I babe purged thee, (i b. uled Means for thy Purgation and Reformation, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, will I beve caused my fury to rest upon thee.

5. THE general Unprofitableness of a People under Gospel Ordinances, will be a sad Prognoffick of GOD's Departure from them. Barrenness under the Means of Grace is very provoking to GOD, and what he will by no Means dispense with. However it may be born with in the Wilderness, yet in the Vineyard it is Intolerable. Luke 13. 6,7. A certain man had a Fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and be came and fought fruit thereon, and found none. Then fail be unto the Dreffer of his Vineyard, Behold these three years I come seeking fruit on this Fig-tree, and find none: cut is down, why cum-breshit the ground? Agreable whereto are those old. awful words of our Saviour, Matth. 21. 43. pow Therefore I say unto you, The kingdom of God GO shall be taken from you, and given to a nation aba bringing forth the fruits thereof. of GOD thus to deal with his People in case they depart from him. He has given them sufficiently to understand what they may expect and look for, in Case they provoke his Holy Anger and Displeasure against them. The Text supposes that GOD may depart from a People, or else the Admonition had been of no force at all. Yea there are many expressioned threatnings of this Nature in the Word of GOD.

So GOD told Mofes, Deut. 31.16, 17. Behold, show shall step with thy Fathers, and this People will rife up and go a whoring after the gods of the firangers of the land, and will for fake me, and break my Covenant which I have made with them. That all the Temporal Curses threatned in the Book of GOD against Disobedience, should be inflicted upon them? When GOD departed from Israel, we read of nothing but perpetual Desolations, the Enemies roaring in the Congregations, and Burning up all the Synagogues of GOD in the Land, while He himself seem's unmindful of their Grief, and regardless of their Prayers

Again, WHEN GOD departs from a People, Spiritual Plagues and Judgments will flow in upon them. If he remove not his Gospel, yet the Continuance of it will be in Judgment to them. He will suspend the Influences of his Spirit and Bletting from it, so that it shall prove a favour of Death unto Death to them. He will verify those awful Words upon them, Isa. 6 9, 10. Hear ye indeed, but understand not, and fee ye indeed, but perceive not, make the Heart of this People fat, and make their ears beaut, and Shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and bear with their ears, and understand with ibeir beart, and convert and be bealed. Rev. 22-11. He shat is unjust, let bim be unjust fill; and be which is fliby, let bim be fusby stull. The work of Convertion is now at a dreadful fland, and the Gospel it self proves ineffectual to the doing any Good upon the Souls of Men. They are fealed up under Indicial Blindness and Hardness; penally given over by GOD to their own Hearts Lufts, to walk in their own Counsels. No Means need to reclaim them shall be of the least Service to them. The Curie is gone out against them, Let Fruit grow here no more for ever; and so they languish, pine away and die in their Iniquities. A way is now made for GOD's Anger, and the Flood-gates opened for the Billows of his Wrath to over-whelm and defroy them.

THIS, in short, is the deplorable Case of that People, from whom GOD's Soul departs, and over whom we must take up the Lamentation, and say. Oh! that then hadst but known, even thou, at least in this thy Day, the things that belong belong unto thy peace; but now they are bid, Alas! for ever bid from thine eyes. All Good goes when GOD departs, and all Evil follows upon his Removal.

DOCT. IV. IT is both the Daty and Interest of a People to do all that in them lies to prevent so great a Calamity, as the Departure of GOD's Soul from them will will certainly carry in it.

BE Instructed, O Ferusalem: Be advised, be counsell'd and warn'd; for the thing is not a matter of Indifferency, but of the highest Importance. It is not a vain thing, because the whole of your Happiness is concern'd in it.

FOR clearing this Doctrine, I shall

Infinite in his Patience, and endureth with much long-fuffering, being loath to leave and give them over to Ruin. And when he is as it were compelled to do so, he proceeds very leifurely in such an Act of Judgment. He gives a People timely notice of it, that so they may stir up themselves to take hold of a Departing GOD.

of GOD goes first from the Cherub, to the Threshold of the House; and stays there, as if it had a mind to be invited back again; then it goes from the Threshold of the House, and stands over the Cherubius, as if upon a penitent Call, it would drop down again to it's antient Station and Seat, over which it hovered, Ezek. 10. 18.
And when he was not sollicited to return, he departs out of the City, and stands upon the Mountain, which is on the East part of the City, (Ezek. 11.23.) looking still towards, and hovering about the Temple, as if loath to depart and abandon the Place and People. As the Learned
Mr. Charnock observes upon the Places.

NOW to be Instructed, in the sense of the Text, is for a People to take Notice of the first Tokens of GOD's going from them, and to be humbled under the sense of it: to see his hand lifted up, see it and be afraid, trembling at the Thoughts of his Departure from them.

2. THAT they Repent of and Reform those Evils, that have given him just Provocation to for sake them. GOD does not leave a Prople, for nothing, or upon any trivial occasion: He has

And if they would be Infoncted to engage the Presence of GOD ftill with them, they must Repent of, and put away all those GOD provoking Evils that have excited his Holy Anger against them. Jer. 26.2, 3. Stand in the Court of the Lord's buile, and freak unto all the Cities of Judab, which come to worship in the Lord's boufe, all the words that I command thee to freak unto them, diminish not a word. If so be they will bearken, and turn every man from his Buil way, that I may repent me of the Evil which I purpose to do unio them, because of the Evil of their doings. Fzek. 18. 30, 31. Repent and turn your feloes from all your Trans greffions, so Iniquity hall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your Transgresh no whereby ye have transgr fled : for why will ye die! GOD is ready to return to a People upon their fincere Repentance, and reforming what has been the matter of Offence. An Evidence and Instance whereof you have, Judg. 10 15, 16. And the Children of Ifrael Jaid unto the Lord, We have sinned, do thou unto us, ubaisocver feemeth good unto thee; deliver us only we proy this day. "Proceedings against them". Reformation is the only way to recover the Presence of a Des parting GOD, and obtain Deliverance from a Threatned Destruction. Hence the King of Ninevel exhorted and argued with his People after this manner, Jonah 3. 8, 9. Ler man and beaft be covered with fackcioth, and cry mightily unto God: Tea let them turn every one from bis Evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands: Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger. that we perish not ? That they unite their Prayers and fervent Supplications for his gracious return: expressing themselves in some such Lauguage as that, Pfal. 80. 14, 19. Return we befeech thee, O God of Hofts: look downfrom heaven, and behold, and vife this vine Turnus ogain, O Lord Ged of Hofts: cause thy face to Thine, and we shall be saved. Jer. 14. 20, 21. We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the Iniquity of our Fathers, for we have sinned og ainst thee. Do not abbor us for thy names Take, do not differace the Throne of thy Glory : remember. break not thy Covenant with us. This, GOD reasonably expects from a sinful People,

People; and for this very end, he threatens to remove from them. Hof. 5. 14, 15. For I will (says GOD,) be unto Ephraim as a Lion. and as a young Lion to the house of Judab: I, even I will tear and go away: I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their Offence, and feek my face: in their offliction they will feek me early. And unless a People do this, they are far from receiving Instruction, and doing what in them lies to keep GOD yet among them. But I come, Carry Start Mineral

II. TO give you the Grounds of the Point, as they are laid down in the Doctrine.

And, which the tent of the first sor to 1. IT is the Duty of a People thus to be Instructed: thus to repent of and reform every thing that has been amis, and earnestly cry after a with drawing GOD, that he would please to ftir up his Strength, and come and fave them. Without this, a finful People frustrate the Design of GOD, and lay themselves open to his most terrible rebukes. Zeph. 3. 6, 7, 8. I have cut off the nations, their Towers are defolate, I made their Areets wafte, that none passeth by : their Cities are destroyed, fo that there is no man, that there is none Inhabirant. I faid, surely thou wilt fear me : thou wilt receive instruction, so their dwelling should not be cut off ; but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings. A Refusing to be Reformed by the more gentle Strokes of GOD's hand, both adds to the People's Guilt, and exposes them to heavier and much sharper Dispensations; for GOD will by one means or other, attain his End upon a provoking People. 2. IT is for the Interest and Safety of a People, to do their utmost to prevent the Departure of GOD's Soul from them. As long as he is with them, they are Safe and Happy. He will ride upon the Heavens for their help, and in his excellency upon the Skies: He will keep off wasting Judgments from them, or whatever might prove an annoyance to them. Zeph 3. 16, 17. In that day it shall be faid to Ferusalem, Fear thou not : and to Zion, let not thine bands be flack. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty: be will fave, be will rejoice over thee with jay; be will rest in his Love, be will joy over thee with finging. But O who can express the very sad and lamentable Condition of a People, that have once been Happy in the Enjoyment of GOD's Presence, but are now deprived of it, cast out of his fight, and called by him Loammi, Te are not my people, and I will not be your God! There is nothing now to fecure them from defolating Calamities, but they may continually expect those those Judgments which shall root out their Memorial from under Heaven.

SO that if a People have any regard to their own Interest and Welfare, they can manifest it in no better way, than in a hearty Concern and strenuous Endeavour to obtain and keep the Prefence of GOD with them. For if he Depart, they will soon be Desolate.

The Lord is with his People, while they are with him; but they are ever first in a Departure. And therefore whatever the forrowful Effects may be of GOD's Soul's Departing from them, they can blame none but themfelver, and must charge the whole Fault upon their own Prevarications and treacherous Dealings in his Covenant. So Ifrael of old were forced to do. 1 Sam. 12. 10. They oried unio the Lord, and Said, We have finned, because we bave for saken the Lord. Dan. 9. 11. 2. MAY GOD's Soul Depart from a Professing People? What a Vanuy, then must it be for such to Presume upon his Presence with them, meerly because of their Covenant-Relation to him? And yet thus it was with the People of the Jews! because GOD had chosen them above all other People, and taken them near to himself, they would not believe, that ever he would reject them, tho' they were guilty of the grossest abominations. Hence it was that they to readily listned to what the False Prophets faid, That the City should not be delivered into the hands of the Chaldeans. But what a Vanity it was, you may fee from what GOD commanded the Prophet to fay unto them, Jer. 7. 2, &c. Stand in the gate of the Lord's boufe, and proclaim this word, and fay, Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at thefe gates to worship the Lord. Thus faith the Lord of Hofts, the God of Mrael, amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in Lying words, faying, The Temple of the Lord, The Temple of the Lord, The Temple of the Lord are thefe. Behold, ye trust in Lying words that cannot profit. If a Profetting People will allow them felves in those things that are a violation of the Covenant, will revolt and backflide from GOD their External Relation to him will be no fecurity at all to them. He will as the Prophet Expression is, Zech. 11. 10. Cut afunder the flaff, even Beauty, that he may break his Cove nant which he had made with the People. THAT GOD is Departing, and upon his way from us, is too plain to be denied. Every one that observes any thing cannot but see and take notice of it.

GOD has been marching up and down the Land in Indignation and Wrath, visiting our Iniquities, and punishing our Transgressions by a Series of Judgments; and yet we are not Humbled nor Reformed to this very Day. He has given us frequent and solemn warning of his Departure, and there are those things most certainly to be found among us, which are awful Presages of his forsaking us.

IF we compare our felves with Ifrael of old our manners with theirs, we shall find that there was scarce any Sin they were chargeable with, (fave their more gross Idolatry,) but the same may be found among our selves. And what can we plead why GOD should not leave us as he did them? Are not our forgetfulnels of GOD and Disobedience to, his Commands, our Rebellions and Luftings, our Perfidy and Murmurings equal to theirs? And besides the Evils mentioned under the Second Dodrine; and as to the more heinous. Transgressions of the Law, Oppression and Injustice, Drunkenness and Uncleanness, Lying, Swearing, and Prophaning the Name and Doy of GOD, we must confess that the Land is full of Sin, and delerves to be forfaken of the Holy One of Ifrael.

Go and cry in the ears of ferufalem, faying, Thus faub the Lord, I remember thee, the kindness of thy Touth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentell after me in the wildernefs, in a land that was not fown. Thus faith the Lord, What iniquity have your Fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? O Generation, fee ye the word of the Lord: have I been a wilderness unto Ifrael? a land of darkness? Wherefore fay my people, We are lords, we will come no more unto thee? Iniquity abounds, and the Love of many wates cold. Where is that Zeal for GOD, and Affection to his Ordinances and Ways, which our Fathers were eminent for? Real vital Pi-ety is under a dreadful decay, and languishes daily. Men content themselves with a form of Godliness, without the power of it, with a name to live, when really they are dead. A Carnal, Selfish and Worldly Spirit prevails, and threatens to eat out the heart of Religion; and a Formal Lacticean Indifferency is what the most of Professors are dangerously Sick of, and it will be well if they don't Die of the Diffemper. The SPIRIT is withdrawn, and there is but little of that Power and Efficacy attending the Word and Ordinances which formerly there was. All which are Evidences of GOD's Departing. AND D

AND is our GOD going from us, and shall we be secure and quiet? Shan't we bitterly refent the awful tokens of it? and cry more earnestly after him than ever an Idolatrous Micab did after the Children of Dan, when they had taken away his Dunghil-Deities?

O let it not be said of us under such a Dispensation, as it was once complained of, Isa. 64. 7. And there is none that callet b upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee.

AND therefore in the last place

4. LET it be of Instruction and Exhortation to all, in their several Capacities, to do that they can to prevent GOD's Total and Final Departure from this People.

AND to Encourage you hereto. I will fay; That GOD is not wholly gone from us; and as to the Degrees of his Presence that seem to be removed, they also are recoverable.

GOD has still a Favour for our Land; and if we would but Repent of and Reform the Evils that are in the midst of us, he would soon cause his Anger towards us to cease. Yea he would revive us again, and cause his People to rejoyce in him. Let every one then chearfully lend a hand, and contribute all he can to so good a work as that of Reformation is.

AND here, times have now both it who contrary to my own Expectation and Inclination, have order'd me into this Desk to Day. The will have it to la barrier to war advised

AND the Message, which now arrives unto you from HIM who standeth in the Congregation of the Mighty, and judgeth among the Gods, is

THAT you Improve all your Power, Interest, and Influence to engage the gracious Presence of GOD with this Poor People.

CIVIL Rulers are GOD's Vice-gerents on Earth, and in Scripture-Language wear the Honourable Title of Gods, (Pfal. 82. 1, 6.) Which speaks not only their Dignity and Authority, the Honour and Ohedience which is their Due; but also the special Obligations lying upon them, to Imitate the Great GOD by whom they Rule, to be concern'd for his Glory in the World, and be the most Extensive Blessings unto others,

AND in what way can you better Evidence your felves fo? than by doing all that in you lies, that there may be a Reformation of those Evils, which threatenus with the Loss of God's Favour, and due Encouragement given to those things, which will be fo many Tokens for Good that GOD will not leave and forfake us.

IF then you will permit the meanest of the Lord's Servants to be your Monitor, to put you in Remembrance of those things which we trust you know and are established in the Belief of, I would with all pollible Deference fuggest a few things briefly.

IT is without Controversy a Duty indispensably Incumbent upon the Civil Magistrate (who is Custos Utriusque Tabule) to see to it, that the Glorious GOD be acknowledged and worship'd according to his own Prescription and Institution, without the addition of Humane Inventions.

THAT the Religion of the Second Commandment be maintain'd and kept pure, especially where a peculiar Regard to it has been the principal Foundation of a People's Settlement, as is our own Case most certainly.

THAT the Great and Dreadful Name of GOD be reverenced and fear'd; and that the Breakers of the Third Commandment by Profane Oaths and Hellish Curses be not suffered, to escape a just Punishment from Men.

THAT the Holy Sabbath of the Lord, which he himself has Sanctified, be Religiously observed, and every thing tending to the violation of it discountenanced and suppress'd: that his Publick Worship be attended, and the Ministry of the Word suitably provided for.

AND this leads me naturally to say, It is incumbent upon Y o u the Rulers of our People, to take effectual Care, that those who are devoted to the Service of the Sanctuary, and called to wait at the Altar, be partakers with the Altar. I mean as the Apostle expounds it, I Cor. 9. 14. that according to Divine Ordination, they which preach the Gespel, should live of the gospel. That the Ministers of CHRIST and Religion should have an boneurable Support from those among whom they spend their Thought, Time and Strength; and not be forced, in ways unbecoming their Station and Character, to provide for themselves and Families : or elfe be reduced to Penury and Want, which in this Worldly-minded and Gofpelglutted Age, will effectually bring not only the Clergy themselves, but the very Office of the Ministry into the greatest Contempt. It is recorded to the Everlasting Honour of that good King Hezekiab, (2 Chron. 30. 22.) that he spake comfortably unto all the Levites that raught the good knowledge of the Lord. He affured them of his Princely Favour and Paternal Care, and that nothing on his part fhould be wanting for their Encouragement and Comfort. And of that Excellent Governour Nehemiah, who truly fought the Welfare of the Children of Grael, it is observ'd, Neh. 13. 10, Ge. That when he perceived that the Portions of the Levites bad not been given them, he contended about it, and took speedy Care for the redress of their Grievances. And from the Steps already taken by the Government, will our Honourable Rulers now allow the Oppressed Ministers of JESUS CHRIST humbly to hope, that this Matter shall have a Thorough Consideration with them : that by means hereof, thro' the Thanksgiving of many on your account, Glory may redound to GOD DOOD Land As . 2 700 1

Thus must you be a Terror to Evildoers.

Furthermore, IT concerns Civil Rulers to fee to it that the Publick Faith be preserved Inviolate and Sacred; that the Publick Credit be as good or better Security than any Private Bond can be; that those who serve the best Interests of it, be no sufferers by a Failure herein, but may be able with just reason and propriety to use this Speech, The Lord bless thee, O Habitation of Fusice and Mountain of Holiness.

In fine, CIVIL Rulers are to be themselved thining Parterns of Religion and Godline)s to go before their People in every thing that is vertuous and praise worthy, and by their holy unblameable Conversation provoke others to an imitation of them; This will be a good Means to promote the Blessed work of Reformation among us, which will be for the length-ning out of our Tranquillity.

SUFFER then the word of Exhortation, which speaketh to you as unto Rulers, Ezra to 4 arise, for this matter belongeth unto you. And may all the Lord's People be with you, in their earnest Supplications and Prayers, that the SOD of Heaven would put this Honour upon you, of making you the Instrumental Saviours of a sufful sinking People, that are in many respects brought very Low. So let the Lord our God be with you, and let all the People say, Amen.
